Bluegrass Notes

- This is the last newsletter of the 2008-2009 club year. We will resume publication in September.
- We have our last club jam on Thursday, June 18th. Jams will resume September 10th.
- You can find a listing of summer bluegrass festivals on our website at www.queensbush.ca.
- Congratulations to Murray and Udell Gonder. They celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on May 16, 2009!
- We had some sad news this month. Our good friend, and local bluegrass musician, Ed Graham passed away on June 6th. Ed played with the Back-Porch bluegrass band. He played at a number of our winter concerts as well as at numerous other events in the area. He will be fondly remembered.
- We'd like to send our condolences out to our President Bernie Melosh for the recent passing of his mother-in-law. We'd also like to send our condolences to our friend and fellow club member Gary Whitehead for the recent loss of his mother. Our thoughts are with both of you.
- The QBBC Board has adopted a draft constitution that we would like all members to review. There will be a formal vote to adopt this as the Club's constitution at the AGM on July 18th at the campout. This is your chance to have some input into how your club is operated and the kind of programming it does. You can find a copy of the draft constitution at www.queensbush.ca
